

Medication Information for English Speakers

1. Ingredient name

Nebivolol

2. What this medication is used for

(Hypotensive)

Treats hypertension and angina pectoris by reducing cardiac contractile force and blood pressure.

3. How to take this medication

Do not suddenly stop taking the medication, as it may worsen your condition. Do not stop taking this medication without consulting your doctor.

Take at the same time every day.

May cause dizziness and vertigo. Move slowly when rising from a seated or lying position.

Immediately inform your doctor or pharmacist if you have bradycardia (pulse rate less than 50-55 per minute).